

11 November – Armistice Day

Anastasija Jovanovic 7/1

Milica Filipovic

Nemanja Zivkovic

Luka Stefanovic

---

- It's the Armistice day in the World War I.
- It was signed by the Allied powers and Germany in 1918

- A symbol of this holiday is a phoenix flower - Natalie's ramonda. It is known for its ability to be revived when watered, even when fully dehydrated. Therefore, it is a symbol of rebirth, as well as the struggle of the Serbian Army during WW1.
-

- Did you know?
- It is the biggest war that Serbia fought.
- 1914 Kolubarska battle was the biggest battle against Austria-Hungary.

- Did you know?
- Serbian forces with the help of its Allies made a major breakthrough on the Salonika front in September 1918 and liberated our fatherland.

- Did you know?
  - Serbia lost more than 330.000 people in the war.
-

- The 11th November is a public holiday in Serbia and all state institutions are closed except for hospitals.
-

- Goodbye

---